

RICHARD FORD (ARNAO MINE, 19TH CENTURY)

“THE ENGINE FOR DRAWING UP THE MINERAL IS MOVED BY BULLOCKS, WHILE WOMEN DO THE DRUDGERY OF LADING THE CRAFT BELOW”.

Prices (in euros)

Museum, derrick and underground tour in 19th century galleries

Adult (+15 years)	4,50
Child (4-14 years)	2,50
Groups (+12 people)
Adults	3,50
Children	2,00

19th century working-class Village visits	3,00
--	------

Foreign languages tours (Ask in advance)

ORIGINS
THE FIRST
WOMEN MINERS

Concept and historical contents: Iván Muñiz
Translation: Elvira García Menéndez
Sadim - Ayuntamiento de Castrillón

SAMUEL COOK (ARNAO MINE, C.1843).

“... A SPACE FOR SORTING THE COALS PREVIOUSLY TO THEIR BEING PUT IN THE LAUNCHES WICH OPERATION IS PERFORMED BY WOMEN”

Opening hours

High season (June–September)

From 11:00 to 15:00
From 16:00 to 20:00

Low season (October–May)

From 11:00 to 14:00
From 16:00 to 18:30

Closed on Mondays

Reservations are recommended

Contact us

Mina de Arnao, C/ La Mina, 7, 33450
(Castrillón, Asturias)

GPS Coordinates 43°34'38.17" 5°09'01.78"

TEL. 985 50 77 99

museominaarnao@gmail.com

www.museominadearnao.es

ARNAO COAL-MINING MUSEUM

ARNAO. WOMAN MINER ORIGINS

1591

First coal-mine in the Iberian Península.

18TH CENTURY

Coal for the Spanish Navy.

1833

The RCAM is founded.
The Industrial Revolution
came from Belgium.

ARNAO WAS
THE FIRST
UNDERSEA MINE
IN EUROPE. IT'S ALSO THE FIRST COAL-MINE IN SPAIN.

The first women miners. September 1835.
Victoria Pérez, Josefa de la Cuesta and Teresa González.

1836

First railway of the Spanish History.

1839

First undersea mine in the European mainland.

1853

Zinc factory and first working-class village.

1856

The derrick and the first pit in the asturian
coal-mining.

1880

Eleonore arrives, the oldest narrow gauge steam locomotive in Spain.

1915

The sea came in.
The mine is abandoned.

2007

The restoration works began.

ORIGIN OF GENDER IDENTITY. IN ARNAO WE'VE DOCUMENTED THE FIRST NEWS ABOUT
FEMALE COAL WORK.